Hello Leah,

The Department of Workforce Services (DWS) is seeking individuals to fill two (2) vacancies on the Utah School Readiness Board (the Board). The Board is a legislatively mandated entity that governs the School Readiness Initiatives detailed in SB 166.

The DWS Executive Director will appoint two individuals to serve as members on the Board. Members are appointed for a 2-year term and may serve more than one term.

Current vacancies:
- One member with expertise in early childhood education such as a caregiver, educator, or director
- One member who owns and operates a licensed child care center located in the state

Member expectations:
- Attend Board meetings at least four times per year in Salt Lake City
- Have access to technology that allows for participation by webinar and conference call
- Not a recipient or applicant seeking Becoming Quality or Expanded Seat grants
- Willing to sign a conflict of interest form
- Agree to serve a 2-year term

Individuals who would like to be considered for either vacancy must send a cover letter and resume to Nune Phillips via email (nunephillips@utah.gov) with the subject line Application for School Readiness Board by 5pm MDT on Friday, June 28. The cover letter should indicate which vacancy the individual is pursuing.
